Data Confidentiality

During INED's competitive recruitment process, your personal data will undergo regulated processing, in line with the principles of transparency and publicity inherent in this type of procedure.

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), applicable since 25 May 2018, and French data protection law, this processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation (Article 6.1.c GDPR).

The data collected are only accessible to authorized persons and are used exclusively for the organization and successful completion of the competition. They will not under any circumstances be transmitted to unauthorized third parties and will only be stored for as long as is necessary for management and regulatory archiving purposes.

You have the following rights over your personal data: right of access, right of objection, right of amendment, and right of erasure. These rights can be exercised by contacting INED's Data Protection Officer (DPO) at the postal address: INED – DPD, 9, Cours des Humanités – CS 50004, 93322 Aubervilliers Cedex FRANCE or by email at: dpd@ined.fr

If you do not agree to the processing of your data, you may refer your case to the French Data Protection Agency (CNIL).
